Our Parish food cupboard is proudly supported by

Sentence:

You, O Lord, are my hope, my trust from my youth. Upon you have I leaned since my birth.

Psalm 71.5–6

Collect:

Creator God,
you have made us for yourself,
and our hearts are restless until they find their rest in you:
teach us to offer ourselves to your service,
that here we may have your peace,
and in the world to come
may see you face to face;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Psalm 71.1-6

1 To you, Lord, have I come for shelter: let me never be put to shame.

2 In your righteousness rescue and deliver me: incline your ear to me and save me.

3 Be for me a rock of refuge, a fortress to defend me: for you are my high rock, and my stronghold.

4 Rescue me, O my God, from the hand of the wicked: from the grasp of the pitiless and unjust.

5 For you, Lord, are my hope: you are my confidence, O God, from my youth upward.

6 On you have I leaned since my birth: you are he that brought me out of my mother's womb, and my praise is of you continually.

A Reading from Jeremiah (1.4-10)

Now the word of the Lord came to me saying, [5] "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you,
and before you were born I consecrated you;
I appointed you a prophet to the nations."
[6] Then I said, "Ah, Lord God! Truly I do not know how to speak, for I am only a boy." [7] But the Lord said to me,
"Do not say, 'I am only a boy';
for you shall go to all to whom I send you,
and you shall speak whatever I command you, [8] Do not be afraid of them,
for I am with you to deliver you, says the Lord."
[9] Then the Lord put out his hand and touched my mouth; and the Lord said to me,
"Now I have put my words in your mouth.
[10] See, today I appoint you over nations and over kingdoms,
to pluck up and to pull down,
to destroy and to overthrow,
to build and to plant."

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

A Reading from Hebrews (12.18-29)

You have not come to something that can be touched, a blazing fire, and darkness, and gloom, and a tempest, [19] and the sound of a trumpet, and a voice whose words made the hearers beg that not another word be spoken to them. [20] (For they could not endure the order that was given, "If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned to death." [21] Indeed, so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, "I tremble with fear.") [22] But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels in festal gathering, [23] and to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, [24] and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.

[25] See that you do not refuse the one who is speaking; for if they did not escape when they refused the one who warned them on earth, how much less will we escape if we reject the one who warns from heaven! [26] At that time his voice shook the earth; but now he has promised, "Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heaven." [27] This phrase, "Yet once more," indicates the removal of what is shaken--that is, created things--so that what cannot be shaken may remain. [28] Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us give thanks, by which we offer to God an acceptable worship with reverence and awe; [29] for indeed our God is a consuming fire.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke (13.10-17)

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. [11] And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. [12] When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, "Woman, you are set free from your ailment." [13] When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God. [14] But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, "There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the sabbath day." [15] But the Lord answered him and said, "You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water? [16] And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?" [17] When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.

For the gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

The Tenth Sunday After Pentecost – Sunday 18th August 2019

- Jeremiah 1.4-10
- Hebrews 12.18-29
- Psalm 71.1-6
- Luke 13.10-17

How often have we made excuses to get out of doing something we've been asked to do, like Jeremiah? 'Too young, Lord ('only a boy'), not a good speaker.' But God (typically) would not take 'no' for an answer. God can work his purposes through us no matter how inadequate we may think we are.

- Pray that you will always trust God as your 'high rock and (your) stronghold', your 'hope' and your 'confidence' (Psalm).
- Give thanks for the Church of the Province of Central Africa, remembering especially the work of the Zambia Anglican Council.

Luke 13:12 –When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, “Woman, you are set free from your ailment.”

We don't know the exact diagnosis of the crippled woman, yet we know Jesus heals her and sets her free. Jesus desires to free us from all our dis-eases: crippling debt, misplaced priorities, mass consumerism, and all the related disordering of our lives caused by believing “the lie of more.” Are you ready and willing to be healed?
